XXXIV ICMH Congress, Trieste 2008

Academic Programme of presentations

Monday, 1 September 2008

14.30 – 16.00 Track 1 - Session I (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Prof. Dott. Massimo de Leonardis, Italy

- Prof. Jean Nicolas Corvisier, France
  The concept of “Civil” and its origin in the Greek world.

- Col. Prof. Gian Gentile, United States of America
  The Problem with history and the “Population Centric” theory in American counterinsurgency doctrine and operations.

- Vice-admiral (ret.) Dr. Stylianos Politis, Greece
  The protection of the civil population during armed conflicts.

- Dr Claudia Reichl-Ham, Austria
  Life at the border - The military border and its population.

16.30 – 18.00 Track 1 - Session II (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Prof. Jean Avenel, France

- Mr Matthew Bennett, Great Britain
  The experience of civil populations during the Hundred Years War in France (c. 1340 - c. 1440).

- Prof. Amélia Maria Polonia da Silva, Portugal
  Terrestrial and naval war implications in maritime societies. Portugal in the early modern era.

- Dr Hugo O’Donnel y Duque de Estrada, Spain
  Relations between the civil population and the military in Spanish cities under siege by the French army (1808-1814).

- Dr Jean-Marc Lafon, France
  Towards total war? Innovations and ambiguities in Soult’s policy in Andalusia (1810-1812).
Tuesday, 2 September 2008

09.00 – 10.30  Track 1 - Session III (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Dr Petre Otu, Romania

- Prof. Charles Rhéaume, Canada
  Canada’s self-image as a non-belligerent nation.
- Prof. Jorge Manuel Martins Ribeiro, Portugal
  The impact of the Peninsular War on the Portuguese civil population (1807-1811).
- Dr Marie-France Sardain, France
  Life in Paris under siege (1870-1871).
- Lieut. Col. Istvan Czigany, Hungary
  The anti-Ottoman defence system and the militarization of the society of the Kingdom of Hungary.

09.00 – 10.30  Track 2 - Session I (Room OCEANIA)
Moderator: Rear admiral (ret.) Paolo Alberini, Italy

- Dr Jorit Wintjes, Ireland
  Total war: the ancient perspective.
- Major Flavio Carbone, Italy
  The judicial evolution of power of occupying forces present on foe territory within the international law of war during World War II.
- Amm. Isp. Capo Vincenzo Martines, Italy
  The role of hospital ships during conflicts.
- Col. Manuel Gracia Rivas, Spain
  Health care within the Spanish army and navy: a portrait by two famous surgeons.

11.00 – 12.30  Track 1 - Session IV (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Prof. Dr Jan Hoffenaar, Netherlands

- Dr M. Christian Ortner, Austria
  The role of the Austro-Hungarian army in the suppression of the internal unrests of 1918.
- Dr Tibor Balla, Hungary
  Deployment of the military assistance troops in Hungary in 1918.
- Mr Kwan Sam Choi, South Korea
  Policy and the lessons learned concerning refugees of the Korean War.
- Major General (ret.) Mihail E. Ionescu, Romania
  Asymmetric war or ideological mobilisation. The Romanian case (1968-1989).
11.00 – 12.30  Track 2 - Session II (Room OCEANIA)
Moderator: General Heikki Tilander, Finland

- Prof. Dr Dumitru Preda, Romania
  The demographic and social impact on the civilian population during the Romanian Great War (1916-1918).
- Col. Dr Francisco Josè Corpas Rojo, Spain
  Allocation: the logistical support system for the army by the population.
- Dr Evelyne Gayme, France
  The civilian perspective on the transfer of French prisoners of war to Germany.
- Dr Kelly de Vries, United States of America
  Standing up to the Ottoman Empire: civilian resistance to Turkish expansionism during the 15th, 16th and 17th centuries.

14.30 – 16.00 Track 1 - Session V (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Major General Dominique Juilland, Switzerland

- Dr Petra Svolisak, Slovenia
  The Italian military occupation of Slovene ethnic territory during World War I.
- Dr Fernando Garcia Sanz, Spain
  Italian civilian and military personnel in Spain during World War I: the intelligence services.
- Dr Petre Otu, Romania
  The civilian population as a factor in the Romanian army’s power (1919-1939).
- Dr Arthur ten Cate, Netherlands
  Civilians as the centre of gravity. The Dutch operations in support of security in Iraq and Afghanistan.

14.30 – 16.00 Track 2 - Session III (Room OCEANIA)
Moderator: Prof. Hisashi Takahashi, Japan

- Prof. Mohammed Salah Dahmani, Tunisia
  Civilians and asymmetric war: the Tunisian army resistance to the French occupation forces in Tunisia (1881-1956).
- Dr. Gianluca Pastori, Italy
  Civilians and war: arms, the population and territory during the repression of the revolt of the mad Mullah in Somalia (1890-1920).
- Dr Thean Potgieter, South Africa
  The origins and effects of maritime insecurity on Somalia.
- Mr Ian Liebenberg, South Africa
  Stellenbosch University in turbulent times: student attitudes and social conflict from World War II to the end of the “Bush War” and the liberation struggle.
16.30 – 18.00  Track 1 – Session VI (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Dr. Col. Allan R. Millet, United States of America

- Prof. Alan Kramer, Ireland
  German war crimes during the First and Second World Wars: the question of continuity.

- Prof. Abdesslem Ben Hamida, Tunisia
  The demographic impact of the two World Wars on the Tunisian civil population.

- Major Mbaye Cisse, Senegal
  The war effort of French West Africa during the two World Wars: the case of Senegal.

- Dr. Bruno Mugnai, Italy
  The "Discolato". Mandatory draft in Tuscany between XVIII and XIX Century.

16.30 – 18.00  Track 2 - Session IV (Room OCEANIA)

Moderator: Col. Prof. Tadeusz Panecki, Poland

- Dott. Enrico Magnani, Italy
  The United Nations and the protection of civil populations: documents and actions.

- Brigadier General (reserve) Dani Asher, Israel
  The I.D.F. Combat Intelligence experience in an asymmetric war. The case of the “Second Lebanese War” against the Hezbollah. July - August 2006.

- Dr Riccardo Herrera, United States of America
  The military occupation of Iraq: Brave Rifles at Tall “Afar”.

---

“BOOK PANEL” – ROUND TABLE
(In English)

Defining concepts and recent books on Total War, Limited War, and Asymmetrical War

09.00 – 12.30  (Room VULCANIA 1)

Moderator: Dr. Enrico Magnani, Italy

- Joseph P. Harahan, Department of Defense, United States
  Total War.

- Erwin Schmidl, National Defense Academy, Austria
  Limited War.

- Charles Neimeyer, U.S. Marine Corps University, United States
  Asymmetrical Wars.

Discussion: The audience
Thursday, 4 September 2008

09.00 - 10.30 Track 1 - Session VII (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Air Force General Pedro Bernal Gutierrez, Spain

- Col. Prof. Reiner Pommerin, Germany
  Death out of the air and its civilian victims in Germany, 1939 - 1945.

- Major General (ret.) Dexue Qi, China
  China’s war of resistance against Japanese aggression and the Chinese people.

- Colonel Dr Dimitre Minchev, Bulgaria
  The Central committee for the Bulgarian campaign in Skopje, 1941.

- Prof. Gavin Cawathra, South Africa

11.00 – 12.30 Track 1 - Session VIII (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Prof. Dott. Antonello Biagini, Italy

- Prof. Raoul Pupo, Italy
  Violence of war, violence of peace; the case of the foibe in Venezia Giulia.

- Prof. Matitiahu Mayzel, Israel
  Military demographic losses and recovery: the case of Russia in the 20th century.

- Prof. Marco Wyss, Switzerland
  Dr F. Riedweg and the enforcement on non-German “Germanic” civilians of SS standards during World War II.

- Col. Prof. Tadeusz Panecki, Poland
  The Polish civilian population during the 1939 German and Soviet attack.

14.30 – 16.00 Track 1 – Session IX (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Prof. Major Gen. D. Solly Mollo, South Africa

- Prof. Mme. Bahija Simou, Morocco
  The impact of Moroccan participation in World War II on the civilian population.

- Dr Patrick Nefors, Belgium
  Civilians and occupation: Belgium in the Second World War.

- Lieut. Col. Jarl Kronlund, Finland
  The impact of the Finnish Wars of 1939-1945 against the Soviet Union and Germany upon the Finnish people and society.

- Major Mitsutoshi Hanyu, Japan
  The mobilization of Japanese students during the Pacific War.
16.30 – 18.00  Track 1 - Session X (Room SATURNIA)
Moderator: Prof. Lars Erikson Wolke, Sweden

- Dr Geoffrey Megargee, United States of America
  Vernichtungskrieg: strategy, operations and genocide in the German invasion of the Soviet Union, 1941.
- Prof. Damijan Gustin – Dr Vladimir Prebilic, Slovenia
- Dr Christos Iacovou, Cyprus
  The Jewish detention camps in Cyprus during the Palestine crisis (1946-1948).
- Rear admiral (ret.) Tiberio Moro, Italy
  The Battle of Lepanto. The impact on political - strategic system in the Mediterranean.

WORKSHOP
(In English)

09.00 – 10.00  Session 1 (Room OCEANIA)
Moderator: Dr Ciro Paoletti, Italy

- Sig. Fabrizio Maniscalco, Università Roma 3, Italy
  The European Union’s conflicts resolution approach.
- Mr. Manuel Antonio Pereira Couto, University of Porto, Portugal
  War and civilians - the impact of soldiers on hospitals.
- Mr. Serge Gadal, University of Poitiers, France
  Strategic bombing: the civilian population as target.
- Mr. Klaus Storkmann, Potsdam MGFA, Germany
  Solution to conflicts or incitement to guerilla warfare? Eastern German military support in Southern Africa and civilian victims.

10.00 – 11.00  Session 2 (Room OCEANIA)
Moderator: Dr Ciro Paoletti, Italy

- Mrs Valeria Rosato, Università Roma 3, Italy
  The conflict and peace process in Colombia.
- Mrs Ellen Tillman, University of Illinois, United States of America
  War and civilians, the solution to a conflict; the case of the occupation of the Dominican Republic on the part of the Marines Corps.
- Mr. Alberto Becherelli, Università Roma 1, Italy
  Civilians and the Italian mission in Budapest in 1919.
Friday, 5 September 2008

09.00 – 10.30 Track 1 - Session XI (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Lt. Gen. Alexandre De Castro De Sousa Pinto, Portugal

- Prof. Martin Hardstedt, Sweden
  Assumptions in war - logistics and civil society during the period of the Napoleonic Wars.

- Dr Charles Niemeyer, United States of America
  The British occupation of Newport, Rhode Island between 1776 and 1779.

- Prof. André Wessels, South Africa
  The Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902) and its consequences: a specific South African study of military conflict and the civilian population.

- Dr Efpraxia Paschalidou, Greece
  The organization and activities of Hellenism under the guidance of religious and illustrious figures during the struggle for Macedonia, 1904 - 1908.

11.00 – 13.00 Track 1 - Session XII (Room SATURNIA)

Moderator: Prof. Ioannis Loucas, Greece

- Prof. Alejandro Amendolara, Argentina
  The Argentine military government in the Falklands Island/Malvinas during the 1982 war.

- Navy Lieut. Blaise Mblue Ngappe, Cameroon
  The conflicts in Chad and their impact on the civilian population of Cameroon.

- Major-Gen. Aureliano Pinto De Moura, Brazil
  Haiti - The path to peace - Minustah.

- Lt. General (r) Pierpaolo Meccariello
  Control of consumption policy in Italy during the two World Wars.
  (Presentation will be held by a Guardia di Finanza Corps Officer)

- Scientific results of the Congress
  Prof. Piero del Negro – Prof. Massimo de Leonardis