1. BACKGROUND

The European Defence Agency was established under a Joint Action of the Council of Ministers on 12 July, 2004. On 12 July 2011, the Council adopted a Decision defining the statute, seat and operational rules of the European Defence Agency. This Council Decision replaced the Council Joint Action.

The Agency has its headquarters in Brussels.

The main task of the EDA is to support the Member States and the Council in their effort to improve the EU's defence capabilities in the field of crisis management and to sustain the Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) as it stands now and develops in the future.

The Agency has a new structure from 1 January 2014. In order to be better equipped to anticipate and react to developments in the rapidly evolving defence and security environment, EDA has been restructured into three operational directorates: Cooperation Planning & Support; Capability, Armaments & Technology; and European Synergies & Innovation. This will improve its operational output; facilitate the prioritisation of tasks; and serve the needs, expectations and interests of Member States more effectively and efficiently.

2. THE AGENCY'S WAY OF WORKING

The Agency is an "outward-facing" organisation, constantly interacting with its shareholders, the participating Member States, as well as with a wide range of stakeholders. It works in an integrated way, with multi-disciplinary teams representing all the Agency's functional areas, to realise its objectives including its annual Work Programme and its rolling three-year Work Plan. Its business processes are flexible and oriented towards achieving results. Staff at all levels need to demonstrate the corresponding qualities of flexibility, innovation, and team-working; to work effectively with shareholders and stakeholder groups, formal and informal; and to operate without the need for detailed direction.

3. THE DIRECTORATE COOPERATION PLANNING AND SUPPORT

The Cooperation Planning & Support directorate focuses on the early identification of requirements at European level and the through-life aspect of capabilities. It is responsible for capability planning through the Capability Development Plan and the Cooperative Programme Database, and Pooling & Sharing including the Code of Conduct. It deals with Defence & Industry analysis to complement the identification and development of capability demands. The directorate is also responsible for key enablers to support defence cooperation and enhance interoperability: military airworthiness, standardisation and certification, and education and training. In addition, it supports CSDP operations and EU Battlegroups at the request of Member States.

4. DUTIES

Under the direction of the Head of the Airworthiness, Standardisation & Certification unit, the Project Officer Standardisation will:

- 1 implement the European Defence Standardisation Policy and Roadmap, ensuring the coordination with key players (including NATO, EUMS, Industry, Standards Organisations and the European Commission);
- 1 monitor and analyze European defence standardisation activities;
- 1 provide a reference set of common for European defence standards;
- 1 manage deriving inputs to the Material Standardisation Group and the action agreed in this forum;

- 1 promote and propose common standardisation requirements during the EDA Preparation Phase;
- 1 develop a roadmap for European defence standardisation in close cooperation with the relevant stakeholders and Member States;
- 1 implement a roadmap for European defence standardisation;
- 1 manage EDA standardisation specific contributions to meetings, conferences and relevant standardisation fora;
- 1 take on additional tasks as required in the interest of the service.

Duties may evolve according to development of the EDA's structure and activities, and the decisions of EDA management
