

INVITATION TO THE ESDC “SPECIALIZED MILITARY LEGAL OFFICERS COURSE: LEGAL ISSUES ARISING FROM EU OPERATIONS”

22nd to 26th September 2014, Rome

Rome, 15 July 2014

Within the framework of the European Security and Defense College (ESDC), Italy has the great honour to organise a course on “Specialized Military Legal Officers: legal issues arising from EU operations”, to be held in Rome from 22nd to 26th September 2014. The course is a joint initiative of the Defence Staff, Centre for Advanced Defence Studies in collaboration with the Sanremo International Institute of Humanitarian Law to celebrate the Italian EU Presidency, with the support of the ESDC Secretariat.

This course is tailored to a public originating from the relevant ministries of the EU Member States, EU Institutions, Agencies and CSDP Missions with a basic knowledge of International and Humanitarian Law and some experience of crisis management or coalition-led military operations.

Throughout the course, participants will have the opportunity to benefit from the know-how of experts from the European institutions and Members States dealing with the latest aspects of IHL and HRL implementation in armed conflicts and peace support operations, and to examine current and future trends, or apparent challenges within the field of IHL.

The Centre for Advanced Defence studies is pleased to extend the invitation to this event, the details of which are attached.

Vice Adm. Rinaldo VERI
President of the Centre for Advanced Defence Studies
