13. Course Programme: The Course lasts 72 hours, 48 of which trains survey and sampling skills using standard protocols in CBR scenarios. Considering attendees are supposed to be CBRN specialists, the course will start with an initial short overview and update of the CBRN threats in military operations, focusing on protection principles and procedures (individual and collective) including protection against Toxic Industrial Materials (TIM). Afterwards, students will be grouped into teams (max 6 components each one) and will learn and practice survey and sampling procedures as detailed in relevant unclassified documents. The skill in such procedures will be achieved by several drills performed in the training area, where realistic scenarios are created by using “safe live agent” CBR and TIMs (sealed beta and beta-gamma sources, photo-luminescent powders and liquids, chemical simulating substances, innocuous bacteria and natural leavens like saccharomyces). During the course the teams will be equipped with sampling and survey instruments used by Italian NBC specialists. It will be also possible for students to use of their own instruments and devices, under own responsibility. For individual protection the students will use their own IPE (over-garment and respirator). However, in some exercises, they will wear an heavy protection suit provided by the ITA NBC School. During the course it will be provided a basic training on “no-light sampling and survey”. Besides a Biological-Chemical laboratory will support the exercises in the training area in order to verify the quality level of biological samples collected by the Teams. The course is addressed to give the students real capability and skill to successfully perform survey and sampling in a contaminated environment by unknown CBR agents and TIMs. They will be able to assess the risk and to ensure timely warning and reporting.
