

Univ.- Prof. Dr. Hans Koller

Short vita:

1979 – 1986 Studies in business administration, Ludwig-Maximilians-University (LMU), Munich

1986 – 1988 Siemens AG, Munich -Project in the area of organization and automation in Cooperation with Professor Picot, LMU

1989 – 1993 (Assistant) Lecturer at the chair of industrial management (Professor Reichwald), Technical University (TU), Munich

1993 PhD on text and data processing from a business administration perspective, LMU

1993 – 1998 Assistant professor ('Habilitand') at the chair of industrial management (Professor Reichwald), (TU), Munich

1998 – 2000 Visiting professor at the department of business administration at the Helmut-Schmidt-University, Hamburg

2000 Postdoctoral dissertation ('Habilitation') on the management of organizations between autonomy and integration, TU Munich

Since 2000 Full professor at the Helmut-Schmidt-University, Hamburg holding the chair of Technology and Innovation Management (former Industrial Management and Technology Management)

Affiliations

Chairman of the working group "Innovation Management" of the Schmalenbach Gesellschaft für Betriebswirtschaftslehre e.V.

Member of the advisory board "Location and Innovation" of the VDI (Verein Deutscher Ingenieure)

Member of the Scientific Board of the IPDMC (Innovation and Product Development Management Conference)

Member of the Wissenschaftliche Gesellschaft für Arbeits- u. Betriebsorganisation

Member of the scientific committees „Technology, Innovation, Entrepreneurship“, „Organization“ and „Production“ of the Verband der Hochschullehrer für Betriebswirtschaft

Member of the European Academy of Management (EURAM)

Teaching positions (current & past)

Kühne School of Logistics, Hamburg-Harburg

Academy of Public Administration and Economy, Munich

Bucerius Law School, Hamburg

Technical University Bergakademie, Freiberg

University of Applied Sciences, Munich

Ludwig-Maximilians-University (LMU), Munich