Kieran Doyle

Conferenziere e Vicedirettore presso Edward M Kennedy Institute for Conflict Intervention.

Note biografiche

Il dr. Kieran Doyle è Vicedirettore del Edward M Kennedy Institute for Conflict Intervention della Maynooth University, in Irlanda. L'attività dell'Istituto è caratterizzata da un elevato livello di coinvolgimento con importanti professionisti e organizzazioni attivi nella negoziazione, mediazione, peacebuilding e pratiche riparatorie.

Il dr. Doyle è il rappresentante irlandese nell'Academic Board dello European Security and Defence College (ESDC), ubicato presso il Servizio Europeo di Azione Esterna a Bruxelles; inoltre rappresenta il suo paese presso l'Academic Think Tank dell'Organizzazione per la Sicurezza e la Cooperazione in Europa (OSCE). Il suo principale campo di ricerca e docenza è il peacebuilding e le lezioni apprese sul campo. Ha capeggiato il team del Kennedy Institute in due progetti di ricerca con fondi H2020, che esaminavano l'efficacia delle capacità UE di intervento nei conflitti. È membro fondatore del comitato editoriale e attualmente redattore aggiunto della rivista online a libero accesso Journal of Mediation and Applied Conflict Analysis (JMACA), raggiungibile al link <https://www.maynoothuniversity.ie/edward-m-kennedy-institute/journal-mediation-and-applied-conflict>. Dal 2019 è stato nominato consulente esperto di materia su mediazione, negoziazione e dialogo presso CivCom, un organo preparatorio del Consiglio europeo.

Assistenza ai Community leader del Medio Oriente (Israele/Palestina) e Nord Africa (Tunisia).

Dal 2015, in collaborazione con lo staff dell'università di Harvard, ospito una visita annuale di leader e diplomatici di rango intermedio provenienti dal Medio Oriente, per valutare le lezioni apprese del processo di pace irlandese. Questo programma sottotraccia ha l'obiettivo di promuovere la negoziazione e il dialogo nel Medio Oriente. Le visite sono finanziate e supportate dal DFA irlandese. I gruppi sono composti da funzionari e dirigenti civili governativi, soprattutto direttori e capi divisione dei Ministeri delle Finanze e Affari Esteri, militari, importanti studi legali, uffici giudiziari, dipartimenti per la negoziazione, partiti politici, agenzie di sicurezza e polizia civile. Partecipa anche personale diplomatico internazionale a livello di Vice capi missione o Capi Dipartimento politico di Consolati e Ambasciate di paesi quali Giordania, USA, Regno Unito, Egitto, Germania, Russia, Svezia e India. Dopo aver conosciuto l'Irlanda del Nord, visitano Maynooth, dove ascoltano la prospettiva dei dipendenti civili e pubblici ufficiali irlandesi (in servizio e in pensione) sul processo di pace irlandese.
