

S. NICOLÒ RESORT

Tourism

Venice the city the gem of

on the water, is Italian touristic

landscape, so precious and romantic. canals, churches, monuments and ancient buildings, tell us the historical and artistic culture that set it apart from the other cities.

Venice is the centre of lots of international art and cultural exhibits, among which the Biennial Modern Art Exhibit and the Film Festival.

It's located in the Veneto Lagoon at 4 miles from land and at 2 miles from the open sea, on 18 small islands separated by 160 canals, connected by 400 bridges. The main bridge is known as Canal Grande, crossed by four bridges. The summer resort is located in San Nicolò at the eastern end of the Lido island that closes the Venetian Lagoon towards the open sea.
