Useful Information

The Cà Vio (VE) resort is located in the municipality of Cavallino Treporti (VE), and includes the whole northern coast of Cavallino peninsula. It covers 65,000 m<sup>2</sup> of Mediterranean scrub, between the “Dei Fiori” camp site and the “Boschetto” camp site. The resort can be reached by airplane - the Venezia-Tessera airport is approximately 50 km away from the camp site; by boat - a shipping line links the camp site to Venice (with stops at P.le Roma or St. Lucia – Riva degli Schiavoni – Punta Sabbiani); by car - via main road No. 14. The camp site has its own sandy beach. The resort offers parking for vans and areas for tents, and is provided with bungalows. The camp site organizes boat excursions on the lagoon as well as band concerts. During the summertime, the main events that take place in Venice are: the Feast of the Redeemer (on the 3rd week-end of July), the Venetian Song Festival (August), the Venice Film Festival (August-September) and the historical sailing race (on the 1st Sunday of September).

How to reach the Base
